

IF YOU HAVE TO ASK WHY I FOLLOW JESUS

(G)

(A-Cappella) If you (C) have--to ask why--I follow (G) Jesus
Then (C) surely--you don't (D) know--who He (G) is Surely you don't know who He is (STOP)
(Music—last line)

(G) He will guide you--on life's—many journeys
And (C) through--the many crossroads—of (G) life
The (C) joy--you will have—walking with Him
It's more--than I could (F) hope—to de (G) scribe
It's (C) more--than I could (A) hope—to de (G) scribe

(G) He died—on the cross—for all sinners
Shed his (C) blood—to redeem us—from (G) sin
Now a (C) mansion—awaits me—in Heaven
That's why—I'll follow (F) Jesus—to the (G) end
That's (C) why-- I'll follow (A) Jesus—to the (G) end

Oh (C) sinner—I hope--you are (G) listening
For (C) Jesus—has so much—to (G) give
If you (C) have--to ask why—I follow (G) Jesus
Then surely—you don't (F) know—who He (G) is Then (C) surely—you don't (A) know—who He (G) is

He'll help you—to lighten--your burdens
He's a beacon—to show you--the way
He will answer—wherever-- you call
In darkness—or the middle—of the day
In darkness—or the middle—of the day

He is always—right there—beside you
At the times--of your--greatest needs
He will answer—whenever—you call
Many times—while still on--your knees
Many times—while still on--your knees
