

LORD OPEN MY EYES

(E)

(E)Some day--when I leave here
When life's (A) work—is all (E) done
I'll be living--in a mansion
Built by Jesus—God's chosen (B) one

He (E) paid the price for me
While (A) there--on the (E) cross
Where He suffered—and He died
For a (B) sinner—who was (E) lost

(E) Lord (A) open up my eyes—so (E) I can clearly see
While (A) Jesus--was dying—on the (E) cross
He was (A) preparing a mansion—for all who would be (E) lieve
Lord, open up my eyes--so (B) I can clearly (E) see

God help me—to remember
How much I owe--a loving Christ
As I journey--to my mansion
Bought by Jesus--with His life

Where I can sing--with the Saints
And join old friends—I once knew
Where I will claim—that new Mansion
My New Mansion—and wait for you

(CHORUS)

“Lord, open up my eyes---so I---can clearly see”
