

THE DARK SIDE OF THE VALLEY

(D)

I have (A) traveled this old world over—Down (G) every dirty (D) road
(G) Roads with no (D) beginning and no (A) end
Now my (G) running days are over—And I'm finally heading (D) back
From the dark side of the valley—To where the (A) sun will shine (D) again

I was told when I was young--About a (G) Savior and His love
And a (D) Devil determined to (A) deceive
But I (D) choose not to listen--And I (G) set out on my own
To the (D) dark side of the valley--And the (A) life of which I'd (D) dreamed

I walked through Hell with Satan--Down (G) every dirty road
Sinking (D) deeper in sin every (A) day
There I (D) cried out to my Savior--Oh (A) God—deliver (D) me

I have (A) traveled this old world over --Down (G) every dirty (D) road
(G) Roads with no (D) beginning and no (A) end
Now my (G) running days are over--And I'm finally heading (D) back
From the dark side of the valley--To where the (A) sun will shine (D) again

(CHORUS)

Now my (G) running days are over--And I'm finally heading (D) back
From the dark side of the valley--To where the (A) sun will shine (D) again
