

He Only Saw Them in His Mind

(G)

Darling would you get that old (C) album—(D) off the shelf just once (G) more
You know how I love those old (C) pictures—it (D) seems--I love them more and (G) more
Ah! (C) This time let's not be in a (G) hurry--let's take the time to remi (D) nisce
It (C) seems I saw them only (G) yesterday—but perhaps there's (D) something we (G) missed

(Music Break)

Thank you my darling that's the last one—Thanks for sharing he would say
The old album goes back on the shelf now—We might get it down another day
She never had the heart to tell him—the pictures were old and fading away
You couldn't even recognize the pictures-the old album had seen its better days

(Music Break)

Every day she takes the old album—off the shelf one last time
And with every picture tells the stories—of the days before he went blind
Yes every day she takes the old album—off the shelf for one last time
And with every picture tells the stories—of the days before he went blind
