

Is it ok if I Cry

(D)

We were planning our lives together
The (G) plans we made were for (D) ever
It (G) hurts to know you are (D) (G) gone
For (D) ever has (A) come much too (D) soon

When the dogwoods are blooming in the mountains
And the (G) dew returns to the valley (D) floor
Is it (G) ok if I sit on the (D) old porch (G) swing
And (D) pretend you are (A) with me once (D) more

Is it ok if I go walking alone
And (G) throw little rocks in the (D) stream
Is it (G) ok if I think (D) about you (G) always
And you (D) show up in (A) all of my (D) dreams

Is it ok if I take your old guitar
Off the (G) nail high on the (D) wall
And is it (G) ok if I still try to (D) play (G) it
Al (D) though I still (A) can't play at (D) all

And is it ok if I carry your picture
And I (G) cry when I see it each (D) day
Is it (G) ok if I bring pretty (D) flow (G) ers
And I (D) place them where they (A) laid you (D) away
